

Other

Post date:

25/08/2015 - 00:00

Image not found or type unknown

New €106 million for research and development are unveiled today for bio-based initiatives to turn renewable resources into useful bio-based products.

The announcement comes in the form of a second call for proposals for the Bio-Based Industries Joint Undertaking (BBI JU), and will support research and innovation actions, including demonstration actions for making the best use of biomass.

More information: BBI JU Press Release August 2015

