

Project STYLE Stakeholder Workshop 2 – Draft Agenda

Date: Thursday 3rd March, 2016

Location: Wyndham Excelsior Hotel, Berlin

09:30	Arrival and Refreshments
10:00	Meeting Start & Introductions
	Overview of STYLE and the STYLE Scenario - Workshop activity: Step into the scenario	Amy Peace, Britest
	The “Ideal Toolkit Specification” Concept
11:00	Refreshment Break
	Preliminary findings from industry testing	Nick Coleman, Tata Steel
	The MEASURE recommendations in the context of STYLE - Workshop activity: Translating the comprehensive into the pragmatic
12:30	Lunch
	Toolkit Specification (including refreshment break) - Workshop activity: Developing the Ideal Toolkit Specification, focusing on a. Data uncertainty, sensitivity analysis & transparency of data sources b. Multi-Criteria Decision Making, including the selection/ weighting of indicators (either upfront or as a pre-filter to decision making) c. Communication of results (how the results can be used within the project team and how they can be communicated to others in your organisation)	Amy Peace, Britest
16:00– 16:30	Networking and further discussions

This project has received funding from the European Union's Horizon 2020 Research and Innovation programme under grant agreement No 636771